

Level: Lower Intermediate (beginning)

Topic: Professions

Grammar: Basic sentence, General questions (after Blueprint Unit 8, Voltron ep.2)

Professions and questions

1) Read the green expressions aloud and translate them.

pilots	to make experiments a pilot	must be brave teachers	to talk on the radio a teacher	to pilot a spaceship firefighters	to fly to space a firefighter	to save people scientists	to follow orders a scientist	to work on a computer postmen	to take people to far planets a postman	to have a bright intellect police officers	to make mistakes a police officer	to send signals presidents	to make reports the president	to be good at maths to die like a hero to give orders to work in a team
	to drive a car to solve problems to use a microscope to be interested in science to bring letters to study nature to go on dangerous missions to teach students to travel a lot
	to work in a team
	to ask many questions to be strong to work for the government

2) Make general questions with words from column 1 and expressions from column 2, ask them to your partner. Each student must ask 15 questions.

Example: Are police officers strong? → Yes, they are strong./ Does the president give orders? → Yes, the president gives orders.

3) Cover the green expressions.

Student 1 must say 7-8 sentences about anybody from column 1 (the same words in the plural and singular numbers are DIFFERENT words.)

Student 2 must say 7-8 sentences about another person/ persons of his/her choice from column 1.

Each student must tell 5 or 6 short stories.

4) a) write a story about presidents and send to your teacher to check

b) record an audio about a postman

WE WILL DO IT AGAIN AND AGAIN IF YOU MAKE MISTAKES!